

Atlantic Breeze

Property Description

All new for 2014, this spectacular oceanfront/recessed vacation home will exceed your expectations! No detail has been overlooked in providing amazing ocean views plus all the extra amenities you've searched for. Located on Surfside Beach, just 5 miles south of the Myrtle Beach International Airport, this home was completely remodeled, refurnished and professionally decorated in tranquil sea glass colors just in time for the 2014 vacation season. Ideal for families, it features 4 bedrooms/4 bathrooms and a kid-friendly loft area with its own flat screen TV and DVD player. It can accommodate up to 14 persons.

Extensive decks wrap fully around two sides of the home providing spectacular ocean views! Enjoy the Atlantic sunrise and your morning coffee on the oceanfront master bedroom deck. Spend the day at the beach by walking just steps through the private garden and down the walkway to the surf or enjoy a day lounging by the private heated* pool.

(*Per tank fuel surcharge for pool heat available during months of Sept/Oct/ Nov and March/April.)

For picnics there is a large park-style grill and concrete patio table with benches in the garden area adjacent to the beach. For ocean watching, there is a dune top seating area.

In the evenings, walk just 5 blocks to the restaurants and nightlife of the Surfside Pier, or if you'd prefer, dine out at one of a wide variety of restaurants that are just a 5 minute drive away. Finally, complete your evening relaxing in the hot tub under the stars!

Each of the home's four bedrooms has a bathroom attached and features its own flat screen TV. Additionally, for the kids, there is a fun "loft"/bunk bed area complete with its own flat screen TV and DVD player. For those times when you'd like to dine in, the well-equipped kitchen is outfitted with stainless steel appliances, granite counter tops and a separate under counter ice machine as well as every small appliance and kitchen gadget that you'll need to prepare great home-cooked meals.

This immaculately clean home has everything you'll need for the perfect vacation during any season of the year! Life is all about spending quality time together and making great family memories. You can have it all and do just that during your next family vacation at Atlantic Breeze!
